THE ENDURANCE OF AFFLICTION.

BY REV. W. H. MARSHALL.

Our sympathy is with the suffering and the grief of the present hour. The deaths of those who have died in the cause of the Union are an example of the endurance of affliction. We are not at liberty to express our grief at the loss of those who have fallen for the cause of freedom. The deaths of these men are a sample of the endurance of affliction. The deaths of these men are a sample of the endurance of affliction. The deaths of these men are a sample of the endurance of affliction.
